

LF Merchandising Trainee Program For Production Platform

Overview

The LF Merchandising Trainee Program is an 18-month accelerated competency-based development program aiming at developing young talents/fresh graduates to become merchandising professionals for the supply chain of the future

Merchandising Trainees will gain exposure to a wide range of development activities, including job attachments to business, corporate training, projects, field trips, working under the guidance of mentors and coaches

Program Framework

What we are looking for

- Final-year university students/Fresh graduates with less than one year of working experience, preferably in Supply Chain Management, Fashion Management, Apparel or Textiles Manufacturing
- Team players with strong leadership potential, self-motivated and drive to achieve excellence
- Excellent command of written and spoken English
- Passion to develop careers in the Supply Chain Management industry
- Candidates who had gone through LF internship - 3-6 months on the job program (for Vietnam)

